1. There was a barracks installation of three large multi-story buildings west of Wolnosci Square in Bielsko (Q 50/X 88). It quartered a few Polish soldiers, probably infantrymen, in August 1950.
2. The Bielsko recruiting office was located on the Ring, next door to the militia headquarters for the district of Bielsko, which was assigned to a militia headquarters in Katowice (Q 51/Y 57).
3. MO personnel wore blue-grey uniforms with epaulets of the same color and dark-blue pipings, and blue-grey service caps. While on duty, members of the MO wore on the left breast pocket a triangular plate with a three-digit number and a small Polish eagle on it.
4. The recruiting office in Biala (Q 50/X 88) was located on ul. Georgi Dimitrova, about 300 meters north of Wolnisci Square.
5. The MO headquarters for the district of Biala was also located on the Ring and was subordinate to a militia headquarters in Krakow (Q 51/Z 24). It had a personnel of 30.
6. The district headquarters of the Security Police (UB) was located on the north side of ul. Zamkowa.
